Case:	Address:	Update:
18/0653	FORMER SILVERDALE GUESTHOUSE, 75 PALATINE, BLACKPOOL	A response has been received from Blackpool and The Fylde College this afternoon regarding the need for additional student accommodation - The College would be fully supportive if there was an application for a purpose built Halls of Residence (highly unlikely); Other than this the College would only support an application for student accommodation where there was a strong case to show the accommodation would be a significant improvement to the accommodation already on our list. In answer to your specific questions I have spoken to the team that deal with student accommodation and would advise you that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· At present we have more than enough accommodation on our list and it is of an appropriate standard.</li><li>· The College has no immediate plans to expand the University Centre and I do not therefore foresee any significant increase in demand for student accommodation in September 2019.</li></ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· The College does continue to look at growth strategies in respect of the HE at the University Centre but at present there is no indication that this would require additional student accommodation over and above what is already on offer.</li></ul>
