Good evening,

I write on behalf of Scott Benton MP, who has been contacted by the business owner of the Mardi Gras Hotel, Blackpool, FY1 2BD.

I believe they are currently trying to obtain a license for up to 30 invitation only non-residents.

The licence would allow the business to expand and offer a wider menu to customers, including putting on Sunday lunch and teatime soup and rolls events. They would appeal to a wider audience than previously, including day trippers, which many hoteliers are unable to benefit from. As some visitors are only be able to come for the day, they could still offer them food, drink and socialising. This would add substantial revenue to the hotel and allow them to diversify their business.

They have invested a lot of money into renovating and improving the property after it sat empty for years with a collapsing roof and damp. This has a wider benefit to the rest of Blackpool and helps improve the overall image. After the difficulties of the current climate the license could help prevent the hotel going bankrupt.

Could you please note Scott's support for their license?

All the best and take care,

Bradley
