3 APPLICATION FOR A PREMISES LICENCE- 21-25 TRAFALGAR ROAD

The Panel considered an application for a new premises licence in respect of 21-25 Trafalgar Road and the relevant representations submitted by Lancashire Constabulary and Public Health.

Mr Michael Woosnam solicitor for the applicant was in attendance and gave representations to the Panel.

PC Lisa Evans on behalf of Lancashire Constabulary and Chloe Dobson from Public Health Blackpool Council made representations in objection to the application.

The Panel considered carefully the application, representations, the Secretary of State's Guidance and the Council's Statement of Licensing Policy. It noted that the application was within the Bloomfield Ward which was part of the off licence saturation area.

Resolved:

That the application for a premises licence be refused on the grounds that the premises are within the Cumulative Impact area for off licence saturation and the applicant has not submitted sufficient evidence that these premises would not add to the crime and disorder already taking place in this area.
