

Appendix 4c

Abingdon Street

A barrier has now been created around the machine area stretching from the right hand wall on entrance connected to the now stationary table in the centre of the shop floor. This now forces the customer to walk towards the counter before entering the machine area.

A motion detection device has also been installed in the entrance area of the LBO which alerts the staff with an audible alarm situated behind the counter.

