LC-20210810-0063 Assault 01:04 hrs	Lawful ejection by door staff. Female turns up at police station and lashes out at officer resulting in arrest.	10/08/2021 01:31 hours 4723 4723 TOUR. I WOULD SUGGEST THAT NORMALLY DOOR STAFF ARE NOT IN THE HABIT OF PUNCHING PEOPLE IN THE FACE AND SMASHING PEOPLES PHONES - I DO NOT THINK THIS NEEDS TO BE A GRADE 2. I WOULD 10/08/2021 01:31 hours 4723 4723 THINK SHE HAS BEEN LAWFULLY EJECTED - SHE NEEDS TO GO HOME AND THIS CAN BE DOWNGRADED FOR CONTACT TOMORROW - LIKELY WHEN SOBER. 10/08/2021 01:39 hours 13001 13001	The female is adamant she was assaulted by doorstaff, who also broke her phone. She was arrested on the night – described as extremely drunk after drinking in Kaos. Recorded as assault and damage.
LC20210810-0130 – RTC 02:46 hrs	Police state in review “On 10th August 2021 at 0245 hours several logs were received by Police relating to a large brawl outside Kaos where a car was driven at the premises. Two arrests were made (LC-20210810- 0130)”	The offender in this case was a career criminal and was not known to the premises and resided at the time in Scotland. He entered the premises with a former employee so wasn't deemed a risk. He was ejected following a homophobic comment to one of the performers. He phoned a member of door staff threatening to kill him, this call was recorded and later used in the trial. Approximately 20 minutes had lapsed before the vehicle pulled up outside the premises. Customers and door staff barricaded themselves in the premises and the offender rammed the front doors. CCTV of the incident is still available, and this version of events can be verified. The offender was later charged with 4 offences and evidence obtained from the door staffs phone recording was used as part of the trial evidence.(Incident 5 on table)	Police accept limited liability here for Kaos. Adds to general picture of the type of cliental allowed inside the venue.
