I have read with horror at the request for new licensing hours for the sale of ALCOHOL for the Post/Office/Wine Shop at 27. Whitegate Drive.
Prior to the wine shop taking over the Post Office recently, I had reason to go into the shop on only two occasions. On both visits I was appalled when I had to listen to the F--- word used frequently by shoppers buying alcohol.
If a member of the Public requires ALcohol at 8am and again after midnight it would seem they have a huge problem and don't need further encouragement by longer licensing hours.
The N.H.S. Is at raking point with ALCOHOL addiction.
I FEEL VERY STRONGLY THAT THIS REQUEST SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED
